TEXT

There was a seismic shift in the European punk scene when Californian Mike Sobieski and Norah Findlay selected the Basque phenomenon Kike Turmix as their frontman in 1987. Madrid was the place to be, and with the addition of the British bass player Barnaby Bowles and later Spanish Angel Ramos, The Pleasure Fuckers crafted a singular sound, grabbing punk and doing rock while simultaneously grabbing rock and doing punk. In 1988, Simple Needs was the first of a long succession of singles, EPs, LPs, videos, soundtracks, and documentaries, and the band was known from Helsinki to Peru and Prague to Seattle. Kike left our world in 2005.

The Pleasure Fuckers have returned with legendary singer Scott "Deluxe" Drake from Suicide Kings, The Humpers, and Guerrilla Teens. This group is always going to make us shudder and move and will shake the world of punk and rock and roll.

Stay tuned for the digital relaunch of many of the band's recordings and an up-coming reunion show at Azkena Rock Festival (Vitoria, Spain) between on June 22, 2024: azkenarockfestival.com/en/

The official video to Snakebite (1991) has been restored and can be seen on YouTube: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LQOK8s5R8Pc>

Norah Findlay, founding member of the Pleasure Fuckers, writes in the liner notes (excerpt):

Pleasure Fuckers Fans all around the globe will ask themselves: what the fuck is this? The answer is: the complete master recordings of the Pleasure Fuckers! Good music is timeless and right now all the early recordings, 7", 10", LP's, cd's - and even a live cassette! - are compiled for your listening fucking pleasure in digital version.

Kike Turmix, the singer, great record collector and owner of the label, Safety Pin Records, always dreamed of reediting Loud, Lubed and Live and First Abortion, the early recordings that only came out on vinyl. Chasing the dream of Kike, The Fuckers and Play Loud! started
